

Update November 2016

As ours will be the first Community Right to Build Order in Wiltshire we are all, including Wiltshire Council, feeling our way through the process: but we are making progress and the CRTBO bid document is being prepared with the help of our planning consultant. Working closely with the county archaeologist we have identified the archaeological investigations that will be needed and we're continuing our detailed discussions with other specialist advisors who are helping us build a clearer picture of costs.